IV. Statement of Claim

(State as briefly as possible the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant is involved including dates and places. Do not give any legal arguments or cite any cases or statutes. Attach no more than three extra sheets of paper if necessary.)

On May 7th around 1:00am Officer John Doe randomly ran tags of a white nissan maxima and signal for the car to pull over. After ordering the passenger and driver out of the car, officer John Doe struck plaintiff with his baton at which time plaintiff moved to avoid another strike. During this time several other officers arrived and jumped out and began tasering the plaintiff. After being detained plaintiff began complaining about being tasered and unnecessary roughness with profanity, officers then dropped plaintiff on his head while handcuffed, which sent him unconscious. Plaintiff awoke two days later out of a mild coma to find he suffered a laceration to his head that lead to some bleeding on the brain, he also suffered temporary breathing problems from possible damage to his lung. After several days in Intense of Care Unit under medical supervision and heavy sedation the plaintiff was deemed in stable condition.

V. Relief

(State briefly exactly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments. Cite no cases or statutes)

For punitive and compensatory damages the plaintiff is asking for the relief to be given at discretion of the jury.
